Re: APAME Convention 2012

It is our pleasure to inform that the Association of Malaysian Medical Journal Editors (AMMJE) will be organizing the Asia Pacific Association of Medical Journal Editors (AAPAME) convention 2012 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia. There will be a two-day scientific meeting (1st and 2nd Sept 2012), followed with post-convention workshops (3rd Sept 2012). The president of World Association of Medical Editors (WAME) and council member of Committee of Publication Ethics (COPE) were among the invited speakers.

We would like to invite MOA members especially those who are involved in peer review of journals articles or served as editors of medical journals to register in this convention. There is a workshop on “how to be a good reviewer” by Professor Colin Binns from Curtin University. Participants will have the opportunity to witness the Kuala Lumpur declaration on “Promotion of Scholarly Writing Skills and Standards in the Asia Pacific Region”. There will also be a launching of APAMED, a new portal for medical journals from Asia pacific region. Currently we already have participants from more than 20 countries. Further information can be obtained from the convention homepage: http://ammje.org/apame2012/

Please contact our secretariat (apame2012@ammje.org) if you require any further clarification. We are looking forward to meeting you during this convention. Thank you very much.

Yours sincerely
